Class Poem

We're the class of fifty-five
For us it has been quite a drive
At last after twelve full years
We leave our school of joy and tears.

Betty Allgire is first on our list
A day of school she has tried not to miss.
Shirley Bryan with diploma in her hand
Leaves us now wearing a wedding band.
David Cunningham, he gives a big groan
As a wrong note comes from his trombone.
Alice Foster never in the stand
She's out marching with our band.
Next in line is Rose Marie Free
She's a friend to both you and me.
Lyle Freyman to our class is just great
But how many times has he shown up late?
Helen Grum with baton in her hand
Strutting, marching and leading our band.
Janet Hawley with her brown eyes
How she wishes for a couple of guys.
Juanita Hawley is quite a gal
To all of us she is a great pal.
Lyle Hoffman with his Buick eight
Needs some money to celebrate.
Mona Howe with her short black hair
Oh! How she wishes she were a millionaire
Pauline Hubler with her tuba
Wishes that she could go to Cuba.
Joyce Keener who lives in town
You never see her with a frown.
John Laborie so carefree and gay
He'll talk to you any time of the day.
Pat Lamb with answers so quick
From her jokes we get a big kick.
Annabelle Leininger so quiet and shy
To her we give our final goodbye.
Margaret Tahya and Carl Pay
Our favorite couple of the day.
Charlene Pointer with smile so bright
Never makes it to school after a big night
Dorothy Querin with her eyes of blue
How she wishes she were five foot two.
Mary Lou Regal with her red hair
In this world she has not a care.
Don Rhoades sometimes called Dusty
It seems at times his mind is rusty.
Bud Stark looking for a seat
So he can sit down and begin to eat.
JoAnn Sutton our next girl in line
She's from Texas and is doing fine.
Bob Taylor a carefree guy
To please you he will always try

Emma Jean Thompson for four years has had fun
As our cheerleader she ranks number one.
Ernie Weiler with football in his hand
Many a night he made his stand.
David Lee Welch with nickname of Dave
Seems he is always trying to save.
David Lester Welch dressed so neat
Is always trying to keep on the beat.
Last is Carole Weyer a great fan
She just arrived home from a year in Japan.

We have gone through our class just for fun
We thank our teachers for what they have done.
They've helped us through our trouble and fights
And taught us to stand up for our rights.

Last Will and Testament

We the senior class of Sullivan High School being of sound mind and body on this 25th day of May in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-five do hereby and hereon make this our last will and testament and do make all other wills and testaments void:

To the teachers we leave the thought of peace and quiet for the first time in four years.

To the members of the junior class we leave our stale chewing gum and torn textbooks.
May they make good use of all of them.
To the sophomores we leave our ability to skip detentions. Good luck kids.
To the freshmen we hereby bequeath our quietness in the hope that they will follow our steps and keep out of trouble.

I, Betty Allgire, leave to David Zacharias the privilege of sitting in the first seat of each room providing he can get the teachers to change the alphabet.
I, Shirley Bryan, do hereby bequeath my quietness to Judy Wright.
I, David Cunningham, do hereby bequeath my brains to David Miller.
I, Alice Foster, leave a box of kleenex to each class because I will not be here to borrow from.
I, Rose Marie Free, leave my ability to drive to school to Janet Foster in hopes that she gets a drivers license.
I, Don Rhoades, leave my hair styles to Alan Wacker.
I, Lyle Freyman, leave my ability to bake a cake to Keith Roice.
I, Janet Hawley, leave my ability to work in a resraurant to Edith Thompson.
I, Juanita Hawley, leave my ability to walk to school to Wesley Reese.
I, Lyle Hoffman, leave my ability to drive around on an empty tank of gas to Chuch Swope.
I, Mona Howe, leave my place at the telephone switchboard to Alice McClaflin. Keep your ears open and your mouth shut, Alice.
I, Joyce Keener, leave my "cackle" to Sandra Taylor.
I, John Laborie, leave my ability to make fouls to Kenny Nichols.
I, Pat Lamb, to Barbara Bakos do leave my place as wittiest.
I, Annabelle Leininger, bequeath my ability to type up the school menus to Carol Walter.

I, Carl Pay, leave my place on the football team to Justin Jones.
I, Dorothy Querin, leave my ability to argue about bookkeeping to Tom McConnell.
I, Mary Lou Regal, leave my red hair to Edrie Nichols.
I, Bud Stark, leave my good grades in Science to the Thompson boys.
I, JoAnn Sutton, leave my Texas accent to Edith Ringler.
I, Margie Tahya, leave my ability to go steady for three years while in school to Anna Hastings.
I, Bob Taylor, leave my ability to get all the girls to Ronnie Sprinkle and hope that he can keep them.
I, Ernest Weiler, leave my ability to bite the girls to Bob Humphrey.
I, Emma Jean Thompson, leave my cheerleading ability to Mary Ann Marshall.
I. Dave Welch, leave my ability to draw cartoons to Dick Foster.
I, David Welch, leave my place as best dressed boy to Chuck Swope.
I, Pauline Hubler, leave my ability to play the piano to Franklin Allgire.
I, Carole Weyer, leave my ability to write letters in school during study hall to Glenda Keefer.
I, Charlene Pointer, leave my seat on the basketball bus to Della Hawley.

Signed and sealed this 25th day of May nineteen hundred and fifty-five.

The Class of 1955

Class History

FIRST HOUR: We began our ascent on the path of knowledge in September 1943 with the following charter members: Betty Allgire, Alice Foster, Lyle Freyman, Helen Grum, Janet Hawley, Pauline Hubler, Joyce Keener, Robert Taylor, and Emma Jean Thompson. Mrs. Draper was our teacher for the year.

SECOND HOUR: During our second grade we continued our campaign against the evils of ignorance still under the guidance of Mrs. Draper. Our class was increased by "One" with the addition of Royal Stark, Jr.

THIRD HOUR: During our third grade we were under the guidance of Mrs. Soka, who introduced us into the realm of human relations by the study of geography for the first time. David Lee Welch joined our group that year.

FOURTH HOUR: The same old gang was back this year and we were joined by Juanita Hawley and Mona Howe. Mrs. Zacharias helped us along in our search for knowledge.

FIFTH HOUR: During this year our class was divided into two separate classes. One class under the guidance of Mrs. Zacharias and the other half under the guidance of Miss Long. David Cunningham and Lyle Hoffman joined our ranks.

SIXTH HOUR: Being the oldest on the playground, we felt quite proud of ourselves this year. We had finally reached the medium on our voyage for knowledge. Mrs. Zacharias Baker was still our teacher.

SEVENTH HOUR: A milestone in our young lives was our entrance into Junior High this year. For the first time we were to have more than one teacher to help us in our search for knowledge. We felt quite big being allowed to pass from one room to another room for our classes. Carl Pay joined our class this year. Mrs. Ronk was our advisor for this year.

EIGHTH HOUR: Being able to smile at the blunders of the seventh graders, we were now a little surer of ourselves. Mr. Kilchenman was our home room teacher this year. Shirley Bryan joined our class at this time.

NINTH HOUR: At long last we were in high school. We felt quite grown up now. John Laborie and Ernest Weiler joined us this year. Our advisor was Mr. Prokop.

TENTH HOUR: With the addition of Rose Marie Free, Pat Lamb, Annabelle Leininger, Dorothy Querin, Mary Lou Regal, and Margaret Tahya to our class ranks we were well on the way to being the largest class ever to graduate from Sullivan, our number now being 25. Mrs. Frances McNeel was our advisor this year. Some of our members ventured into the field of dramatics by helping the junior class produce "Hillbilly Wedding."

ELEVENTH HOUR: We devoted the entire year to earning money for the annual Junior-Senior Prom for which we decorated to resemble an Old Fashioned Flower Garden, wishing well and all. Our class play "Its Great To Be Crazy" under the direction of Mr. Larabee was a howling success. Our class increased by one more this year when Don Rhoades joined our ranks.

TWELFTH HOUR: This year we were on the last mile in our search for knowledge. This was a busy year for us. We published the annual, had our pictures taken, picked out invitations and were guests at the Junior-Senior Prom. We became travelers for the first time by taking our senior class trip to Washington D. C., and New York City. JoAnn Sutton and Carole Weyer joined our class. The biggest event of our life to date took place at our commencement exercises on the evening of May 25, 1955 in the High School Auditorium when 30 members received their high school diplomas.

Class Prophecy

Samaritan Hospital
Ashland, Ohio
May 25, 1965

Dear Mona:

I have just returned from my vacation trip during which time I saw all of the members of our graduating class in 1955. You will be surprised to hear what some of them are doing. You remember Betty Allgire, don't you? She is a teacher on an Indian Reservation in Oklahoma. I spent a delightful day visiting withShirley Bryan on her dairy farm in Wisconsin. She has as her neighbor Emma Jean Thompson who owns a riding academy.

I flew to Washington D.C. and the pleasant air line stewardess was Alice Foster. While in Washington I had lunch with Ohio's new Senator Rose Marie Free. From Washington I went to New York City where I discovered Lyle Freyman was the chef at the Waldorf Astoria. While shopping at Macy's in New York, I ran into Helen Grum who is a receptionist. She told me that Janet Hawley is now gray haired from trying to teach other people's children.

I had my hair done at the new "Gay Paree Beauty Salon" owned and operated by Juanita Hawley. It sure is a swanky place.

When I left my hotel, I took a taxi to Grand Central Station and who should be the driver but Lyle Hoffman. He is married to Pauline Hubler who is giving piano lessons hoping to discover another Liberace.

Quite a few of the old gang have settled in or near Sullivan. Joyce Keener is married but still works at the dime store in Ashland during the rush seasons. John Laborie went to Ohio State and now manages a big farm near Huntington. Bob Taylor has his own machine shop in Sullivan. Carl Pay runs a big construction company and has as his secretary and part-time company nurse, Margaret Tahya. His head accountant is Annabelle Leininger. Dave Lee Welch is still a bachelor and has his own gun shop.

Have you seen the latest issue of "Famous People"? It is just full of pictures of some of our classmates who have made names for themselves. On the cover is a picture of JoAnn Sutton who is now a famous Powers model. I read in the women's section where Mary Lou Regal has been chosen "Mother of the Year". She has six red-headed sons. Dorothy Querin was also selected "Nurse of the Month." There is also an article written by the famous Nuclear Chemists Bud Stark and David Cunningham. Seems they have found a new atom or something like that.

While shopping in Cleveland the other day, I saw Ernie Weiler taking his family of five children through the toy department in Higbees. He is a science instructor at Case. I had lunch with Charlene Pointer who is now private secretary to the president of the May Company. She gets all her nice clothes at a discount.

Did you know that Carole Weyer has settled in Pennsylvania on a large mink ranch. I had a letter from her several weeks ago and she told me that David Lester Welch has a large beef-cattle farm near her home.

I have a dinner engagement next week with Don Rhoades who runs his own art school in Ashland.

I was so glad, Mona Howe, to hear of your appointment as chief operator for the Ohio Bell Telephone Company.

I really must close for this time. Duty calls me. I have a new title now, Pat Lamb "Head Nurse of Instruction" and with the new position goes a lot of extra work to keep me busy. Write soon.

As ever, your classmate,

Pat

Pat

P.S. I almost forgot, Mr. Larabee is still at Sullivan and looking for a quiet and well-behaved class.
